Dear Friends,

At the wedding feast at Cana, Mary told the servants 'Do whatever he tells you'. We too should do this we are told but in order to do so, we must first listen. Mary did just that when the angel Gabriel appeared to her, and Joseph also listened to angel of the Lord - angels being messengers from God - and both Mary and Joseph followed God's plan. Zechariah also heard from the angel Gabriel, but he doubted the message and, as a result, he was unable to speak until his son, John, was born.

I am not a good example of a listener to God - a bit slow in the uptake, but I hope that I am improving. Not struck dumb at present!

We all need to listen for God - but how? Here are five ways:-

1. silence: to hear God's voice, we need to be quiet and give our whole attention to Him. In a noisy and busy world this can be challenging to achieve.
2. Scripture: the Word of God is living and effective, and it is through the Holy Scriptures that God speaks to us. Listen to the readings at Mass, read the Bible at home: give some time to the scriptures - a little every day.
3. conscience: listening to our conscience reveals God's voice, which calls us to love and do good and reminds us when we do otherwise. Our conscience guides us to do God's will.
4. others: interacting with others - we are all made in God's image and can reveal God's message to each other in what we say and in what we do.
5. nature: the beauty of nature reflects God's infinite beauty, and through it, we can hear His voice. Take time to be with nature - God's creation - see God at work in all that is around us and rejoice in it.

In these last few days of Advent let us listen out for God as we prepare to celebrate the birth of Jesus - God with us.

Dcn Huw ☺

EXPOSITION and ADORATION of the BLESSED SACRAMENT

FIRST
SUNDAY of the MONTH

4.30 – 6.30 p.m.

You are welcome to come and spend time in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament

Dear Friends

Wishing you and your families every blessing for Christmas, and for the Christmas Season. As we celebrate the mystery of the Incarnation, Jesus being born for us, God coming among his people in all humility to bring peace, joy, love and hope for all, we pray for everyone in our families, in our Parish community and the wider communities in which we live and work. As we celebrate the birth of the Prince of Peace, we offer prayers for peace, remembering especially people of Ukraine, Gaza and Israel and other parts of our world where there is conflict and war, pain and suffering.

Isaiah proclaims the message for all people, in the midst of darkness, we have seen a great light! Christ is born for us, alleluia! The challenge for us as we celebrate Christmas is to long for the light, to long for freedom from all that oppresses and all that keeps anyone from God in any way. We are invited to long with our whole being for God's presence in every aspect of our lives.

As Paul speaks to Titus, he tells us clearly that God has appeared so that we can know Jesus Christ. As we celebrate the birth of Jesus we are reminded of the grace that God has freely given us, grace that leads to God's saving love being revealed. As we enter the Christmas season, Paul reminds us that the grace of God has appeared to all and that we are called to live in a way that reflects this grace, to reflect the love of Jesus as we celebrate his birth.

Only in the Gospel, as we hear the words of Luke, do we come to see clearly how all of this will come about: through the birth of the Saviour, Jesus Christ. All are called to see through the darkness to the light that God is giving us, the Light of the World, who comes to bring us hope, peace, joy and love. As we rejoice in the birth of our Saviour and trust in Him as much as we can, we are given freedom from darkness so that we can live in the light, live in His grace. God's love has come to earth and we can rejoice now and forever.

With every blessing and prayers for Christmas and the Year ahead..

Fr John & Deacon Huw

Reflections to inform our thoughts, prayers and actions on

Every time you smile at someone, it is an action of love, a gift to that person, a beautiful thing.

Kind words can be short and easy to speak, but their echoes are truly endless.

St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta

CRIB APPEAL

This year, as a diocese, our crib appeal will be for the Latin Patriarchate in Jerusalem. His Beatitude, the Patriarch, Cardinal Pierbattista Pizzaballa has tirelessly worked with the whole peoples of the Middle East, petitioning for peace, compromise and goodwill in the region. He is a recognised figure in the negotiations and brings about a serenity and neutrality to the proceedings.

He has visited Gaza frequently, especially Fr Gabriel's parish of the Holy Family in Gaza and offered his prayers, encouragement and support. In sending money directly to his care, he will ensure that the charity is distributed to places where it is most needed - whether that be in Gaza or the West Bank.

There will be a collection box near the crib and a button icon on the Dona machine.

Thank you.

CLOSING OF THE JUBILEE YEAR OF HOPE

Bishop Peter invites you to celebrate the end of the Jubilee Year of Hope at Mass in the Cathedral in Norwich on Sunday 28th December at 11 a.m.
