

MODERN SLAVERY CONFERENCE

Organised by the Roman Catholic Diocese of East Anglia

Saturday, 6 February 2027 | 10:00 am – 4:00 pm

St Etheldreda's Hall, 14 Exeter Road, Newmarket, CB8 8LT

FREE - Donations will be accepted for
Bakhita House a Refuge for Survivors of Slavery.

Why Attend?

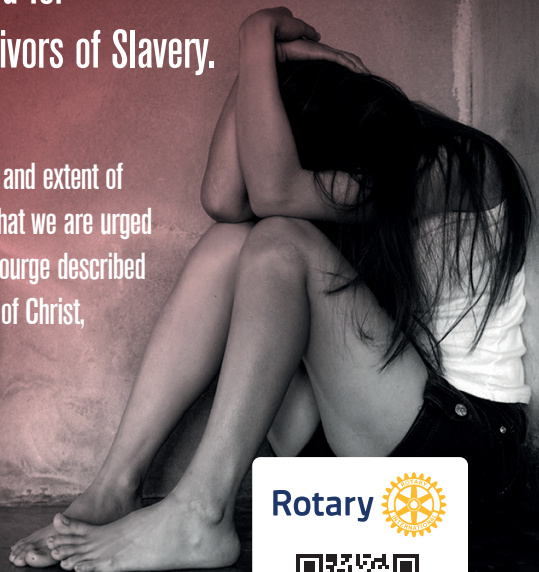

The Diocese invites you to learn the true nature and extent of modern slavery and to discover practical ways that we are urged individually to combat together this atrocious scourge described by Pope Francis as “an open wound in the body of Christ, in the body of all humanity”.

Refreshments: Please bring a packed lunch.

How to join us:

- In-Person: To register attendance, email ann.hughes@btinternet.com
- Live Stream: To stream scan the QR code or go to <https://www.rcdea.org.uk/caritas-east-anglia/modern-slavery/>

Rotary

MS CONFERENCE - SPEAKERS

Karen Anstiss

A former police officer and member of the Metropolitan Police Sexual Offences Steering Group. Currently Manager of Bakhita House (a Trafficking Shelter in London) since 2015.

Revd Corin Child

Revd Corin Child is a school chaplain and a priest vicar of Norwich Cathedral. He is the Diocesan Coordinator for the Clewer Initiative, the Anglican Church's response to modern slavery.

Det Supt Neil Sloan

Neil Sloan is a Detective Superintendent at Cambridgeshire Constabulary in charge of the Intelligence and Specialist Crime Department and senior responsible officer coordinating the response to Serious and organised Crime.

Simon John

Co-Lead on the current Roman Catholic Diocesan initiative against Modern Slavery in East Anglia.

Mark Little MBE

Founder Chair, Rotary Action Group Against Slavery and Co-Lead on the current RC Diocesan initiative against Modern Slavery in East Anglia.

Conference Chair - Paul Raynes

Paul Raynes is the Director of Operations and Finance at the Diocese of East Anglia and was ordained a Deacon of the Diocese in 2023, serving the parish of Ely.